

TERMS OF MEMBER-TO-MEMBER COOPERATION

As a member in good standing of Security Cargo Network (SCN), my company and employees subscribe to these business ethics and practices in all dealings with other SCN members:

- ◆ To support fellow members to the fullest extent possible
- ◆ To pay all monies due members in a timely manner. The balance of a month's invoices should be paid by the end of the following month unless other bilateral arrangements have been made.
- ◆ To invoice promptly for services performed and send a monthly statement
- ◆ To promptly respond to all communications (Within 24 hours)
- ◆ To quote rates in full and accurate detail in a timely manner and to strictly adhere to quotations
- ◆ To share profits according to prior agreement with another member and in accordance with the standard terms and conditions of the trading areas involved.
- ◆ To avoid bidding members in the same market against each other
- ◆ To be active in sales endeavors for mutual growth and provide sales leads when possible
- ◆ To respect other members' existing customer bases and refrain from backselling
- ◆ To not purposely hire employees away from another member and to not allow any other member's former employee to try to bring their business with him should they be hired
- ◆ To be properly staffed for the highest level of service
- ◆ To operate in accordance with all stated shipping advice
- ◆ To not cancel a pre-alert or suspend business with another member as a result of a dispute or sub-standard service without due notification to SCN Administration and the other member
- ◆ To seek the help of SCN administration for dispute resolution
- ◆ To accept the determination of the SCN Technical Industry Advisory Panel (TIAP) in dispute cases that cannot otherwise be resolved and must be submitted to them
